

Why Pray in the Spirit?

Mark 16:17

Introduction:

- Just celebrated 100 year anniversary of Pentecost
- Brought Baptism with Holy Spirit (with speaking in tongues) into forefront
- Jesus said that one of the signs of believers would be they spoke in other tongues
- Paul talked about "praying in the spirit"
- Is all praying in the Spirit praying in other tongues? Yes and No
- I Corinthians 14:14-15 - equates praying in spirit with praying in tongues

Interrogative: What are the benefits to praying in the Spirit, in particular praying in tongues?

Transitional: The following are five benefits to praying in the Spirit, in particular praying in tongues:

- I. Praying in the Spirit edifies your faith: Jude 20, I Corinthians 14:4
  - Modern vernacular "charge" like charging a battery
  - Many things in this world that try to take away our zeal and strength
  - God provided a way for us to keep the fire, maintain the spiritual glow
  - Allow the Holy Spirit to pray through you
  - You will help others and yourself, but in any event, it builds you; charges you
- II. Praying in the Spirit purifies your walk: John 14:16-17
  - Howard Carter, who was general supervisor of the Assemblies of God in Great Britain for many years, and founder of the oldest Pentecostal Bible school in the world, pointed out that we must not forget that speaking with other tongues is not only the initial evidence of the Holy Spirit's infilling, but is a continual experience for the rest of one's life.
  - Praying in the Holy Spirit will remind you that you are not allowed, He will help you rise up to become the person God called you to become.
  - No road rage (not a sickness) when police officers around
  - Allow the Holy Spirit to Help You walk
- III. Praying in the Spirit assists your warfare: Ephesians 6:18, I Corinthians 14:2
  - Part of our praying is warfare praying.
  - There is a real enemy that is trying to stop the church
  - Paul says that when we are engaged in spiritual warfare, we need to pray in the Spirit.
  - Two ways:
    1. Praying about things you don't know in the natural
    2. Your prayers go directly to God
- IV. Praying in the Spirit expands your worship: I Cor. 14:15, Eph. 5:19, Col. 3:16
  - Paul tells them to Speak to one another, using psalms, hymn and spiritual songs.
  - When we come together, our worship is magnified as we join with each other.
  - Their voices encourage us, as we inspire them.
  - Separation from local assembly deprives a person of this relationship and its strength. Assemble often and praise much.
  - Psalms: scriptural lyrics in song; hymns: humanly inspired lyrics in song; spiritual songs: impromptu rhythmic lyrics given by the Holy Spirit in tongues
  - Allow the Holy Spirit to direct your worship: private and public
- V. Praying in the Spirit focuses your prayer: Romans 8:26, I Cor. 14:14
  - Speaking in tongues keeps selfishness out of our prayers. A prayer out of one's own mind and thinking has the possibility of being unscriptural. It may be selfish.

Why Pray in the Spirit?

- P.C. Nelson, a scholar of the Greek, said that the Greek literally reads here, "The Holy Ghost maketh intercession for us in groanings that cannot be uttered in articulate speech." Articulate speech means our regular kind of speech. He went on to point out how the Greek stresses that this not only includes groanings escaping our lips in prayer, but also praying in other tongues.
- Many people pray for and receive from God things that are outside of the will of God. Israel wanted a king, God gave them one, but it was clearly not His will.
- Allow the Spirit of God to pray the perfect will of God through your lips.

Conclusion:

- I Corinthians 14:18, Paul says that he prays in tongues more than all of them. They prayed in tongues a lot, so he must have prayed a lot.
- If you haven't made a commitment to spend some time each day praying in tongues, make one now.
- As we decide to pray in the Spirit
  1. edifies your faith
  2. purifies your walk
  3. assists your warfare
  4. expands your worship
  5. focuses your prayer

Why Pray in the Spirit?

Mark 16:17

And these signs will follow those who believe: In My name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new tongues...

I Corinthians 14:14-15

14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful. 15 What is the conclusion then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will also pray with the understanding. I will sing with the spirit, and I will also sing with the understanding.

Jude 20

But you, beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit...

I Corinthians 14:4

He who speaks in a tongue edifies himself...

John 14:16-17

16 "And I will pray the Father, and He will give you another Helper, that He may abide with you forever-- 17 "the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees Him nor knows Him; but you know Him, for He dwells with you and will be in you.

Ephesians 6:18

...praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, being watchful to this end with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints.

I Corinthians 14:2

For he who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God, for no one understands him; however, in the spirit he speaks mysteries.

I Corinthians 14:15

What is the conclusion then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will also pray with the understanding. I will sing with the spirit, and I will also sing with the understanding.

Ephesians 5:19

...speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord...

Romans 8:26

Likewise the Spirit also helps in our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

I Corinthians 14:14

For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.

I Corinthians 14:18

I thank my God I speak with tongues more than you all...
